Work 2

RTC

' Tell us one of your forest stories '

i) Who asked this to whom ?

Ans. Seher asked this to Grandma.

ii) Which story Grandma told them ?

Ans. Grandma told them an elephant story.

Work 3

Answer the following questions

Q1. What was the 'elephant menace' ?

Ans. Wild elephants were wandering into rice fields and eating up the crops at night. The night guards tried to scare off the hungry beasts, but the elephants were not so easily frightened. This was the 'elephant menace'.

Q2. Why were the elephant angry ?

Ans. The elephants were angry because a large part of the forest had been cut down, which had reduced their space to live and the quantity of their food. They became hungry and as a result, angry.

Q3. How did the herd of elephants approach the granary ?

Ans. The herd of elephants approached the granary in an almost military order.

Q4. How did the elephants show that they were unselfish and did things in an orderly manner ?

Ans. When the elephants had made a hole big enough to enter the granary, the herd divided itself into groups of three or four, since only a few could fit inside at a time. Then each group entered the granary one by one to feast on the paddy. All the while an elephant kept watch. This shows that the elephants were unselfish and did things in an orderly manner.
