The Quilt Maker

QA.

Ans1. holidays, six weeks of leisure activities or perhaps just lazing around the house.

Ans2. on the balcony, park, watch birds pecking at the ripe figs on the tree.

Ans3. as a boutique, three tailors busily stitched all day.

Ans4. use, mobile covers, scrunchies, handkerchiefs, cloth bags.

Ans5. three

Ans6. mobile covers, handkerchiefs, scrunchies, and other things made by Navya.

QB.

Ans1. Navya recycled the scrap pieces of fabric by making beautiful items like mobile cover bags, scrunchies, handkerchiefs, cloth bags etc. It was her own idea.

Ans2. Navya made a patchwork quilt out of the assorted pieces of fabric by covering the smudged portion of the quilt with small bits of cloths and stitching the edges with thread of different colours. She cut out different shapes on card paper. Then carefully arranged the pieces on the sheet and stitched them with a running stitch.

Ans3. Navya's mother offered her payment as a token of her hard work. Navya accepted it as extra pocket money.

Ans4. People in the neighbourhood encourage her by buying the items created by her. The neighbourhood tailors let her have the colourful waste fabric for free.

Ans5. a) Navya's mother is the speaker here. The sentence was addressed to Navya.

b. 'They' are the clients and 'it' refers to the bits of leftover cloth.

c) It was usually declined since it was a waste fabric and not of any use to people.

Ans6.a) The patchwork quilt made by Navya is being referred to as 'beautiful' here.

b) Navya's mother's aunt would love to get it as a birthday present.

c) Navya made this handmade product to use up the scrap material in a creative way instead of disposing them.
