

ST. ANDREWS SCOTS SR. SEC. SCHOOL
9th Avenue, I.P. Extension, Patparganj, Delhi -11009
2024-2025

Class-V

Subject – English MCB

Lesson—8-Who is to Blame?

- B. 1. The prawn bit Chimchong when he was sharpening his axe because he was irritated by the sound of the axe being sharpened on the stone.
2. Wood-apple tree drops a wood-apple to hit Chimchong to take revenge from the woodcutter No, it wasn't successful.
3. The ants attacked the snake to take revenge but on getting the command, they crawled forward and attacked a passing snake instead. The snake wriggled free, rushed towards the forest, and bit a boar on his leg as his response to the attack.
4. The boar could not take revenge from the snake by biting him back so it dug up the roots of a plantain tree, which caused the tree to fall.
5. A boulder went crashing into the old lady's hut and broke one of its walls. The old lady went out and shouted at the boulder and asked the boulder to rebuild her hut. But when the boulder told her that the elephant is at fault, she set out and met the elephant.
6. a) The old lady is the speaker of these lines.
- b) One of the walls of her hut broke when a boulder went crashing on it. She demanded the payment for the damage done by the boar.
- c) Mood-Angry, Tone-Threatening

