Poem: The Beautiful Spring

-By George Cooper

A. Reference to Context

1. In these lines, the speakers are discussing as to who has been the first to arrive in the season. Each speaker claims that he has arrived first.
2. It is the spring season.
3. It did not matter 'who's first or last' because it was more important that winter had gone and spring had arrived, and all must enjoy it. Moreover, each of them had an equal contribution towards making the spring season beautiful.

B. Answer the following Questions

1. The different speakers disagree about who was the first to appear in spring.
2. The crickets are not concerned about what the others are saying. The sun agrees with their point of view.
