The Mango Story

A. 1. a) The servant said these words.

b) He had eaten all the mangoes which the master had asked him to bring for his guest.

c) He lied to his master that the knife was blunt and then lied to the guest.

2. a) The guest said these words to the servant.

b) The speaker would not go into the house.

c) He saw his friend sharpening the knife and was told by the servant that it was meant to cut off his ears.

B. 1 The children looked forward to Grandparents' Day as this day meant loads of fun-storytelling, games, activities, and singing.

2. Grandpa would ask the children questions in between, sing a song or two, and sometimes get them to wear masks and act. In this way he made his storytelling interesting for the children.

3. Gopal was expecting a visit from a friend he had not met in many years. His friend liked mangoes very much. So he asked his servant to go and buy the finest mangoes in the market.

4. The servant was asked to dice the mangoes and serve them to the guest when he arrived.

5. The servant told Gopal that his guest had run away with the mangoes. Gopal believed him because he knew that his friend was very fond of mangoes, and he saw his friend running away.

6. Meena solved Grandpa's riddle. Her answer was that the man bought an apple, as Grandpa perhaps meant that he saw a man go and not a mango fruit.
