Tiger at the Door

A. 1 Rusty said this to Pitamber and Popat
2. They were outside Maridali rest house
3. They had no choice but to break in because a tiger was following them
4. They would have to break into Mandali rest house to keep themselves safe from the tiger that had been following them.

B. 1. The boys were on a nature trek in Chakrata and were going towards Mandali.

2. Rusty could hear a twig crackle now and then or the soft thud like that of an animal walking. He could also smell a feline sort of odour. That made him feel that they were being stalked.

3 Rusty advised Popat and Pitamber that they ought to stay together and stay calm and should not run He also told them that they should continue on their way to Mandali rest house and not turn back because the tiger was behind them.

4. When the boys reached the rest house, they found that it was locked from the outside and there was nobody around

5 "The forest rest house was full of doors and windows, not fastened securely, there was really nothing to secure, except some basic furniture

6 The boys must have felt very scared when they saw that the tiger had followed them to the rest house They might also have been thinking about various ways as to how they could save themselves.
