Poem

Rain in Summer

A. 1. The boys on their way back from the neighbouring school make the noise. They are happy to have the rain after a hot spell and sail their paper boats in the water flowing down the streets

2. They were happy to play about in the rain and sail their boats in the water as they returned from school,

3. They welcome the rain and enjoy it.

B. 1. The rain is beautiful because it comes after the hot summer, clearing away the heat and dust on the fiery streets. It makes everything clean, fresh, and beautiful

2. The tide has become muddy because the rain has carried away all the dust and dirt from the streets and rooftops.

3 The school children show their excitement by making more noise than usual while returning from school

4. The pool is called 'treacherous' because it is deep and its whirling motion suddenly engulfs the paper boats that sail in the water.

5. The plain has been compared to the leopard's tawny and spotted coat.

6. a) In the broad and fiery street.

b) How it clatters along the roofs./Like the tramp of hoofs gushes and struggles out, Like a river down the gutter roars, Till the treacherous pool/Engulfs
