Poem: A Spaceship Landed Over There

A. RTC-

1. Him refers to the vet.
2. He must have smelt of animals because he was a vet and it was his job to treat animals the whole day.
3. The cage was meant for animals.

B. Answer the following questions briefly-

1. The poet and his friends searched for the little men inside the spaceship.
2. The moment the poet sat in the pilot's seat, a voice said, 'Early earthman, and a glass dome dropped around him.
3. The poet must have been nervous when a glass dome dropped around him. A high-pitched hissing sound calmed him later.
4. The poet's friend, a vet, was trapped in a cage by a gizmo. The line that identifies this is Some gizmo stashed him in a cage.
5.
 - We couldn't find the little men
 - We searched and searched inside
 - Words flashing on a screen
 - A glass dome dropped around
 - Some gizmo stashed him in a cage
 - I smiled as I selected 'Yes'
