Session: 2025-2026 (NOTES)

Class - VI Subject - English Topic – Missed (Poem)

A. RTS-

1. The poet is the speaker of these lines.
2. The poet missed the catch, which made him 'feel such a terrible pang'.
3. The poet was dreaming about a beautiful girl named Clara, which made him miss the catch.

B. Answer the following questions briefly-

1. The poet says this because it was a sunny day; the ladies were very well dressed and happy to watch the match in progress; and the birds were sitting on the treetops and singing a cheerful song.
2. The words bowler, batsman, and wicket identify the sport being played.
3. The batsman was grieved because he thought that it was a catch. He got ready to leave the pitch.
4. The poet started pulling his hair violently when he realized his mistake.
5. These lines show the poet's regret:
'Oh, ne'er, if I live to a million, Shall I feel such a terrible pang: or
And my heart was seared deep with a raw burn
At the thought that I'd fozzled that catch'
