Topic: Suspense in Satpura

Q1. RTC-

1. 'They' refers to curious spectators in forest jeeps.
2. They were looking at the narrator and his or her companions.
3. They looked in amazement because they had expected to find tigers, and not people, responding to their alarm calls of sambar deer and langurs.

Q2. Answer the following questions briefly –

1. The narrator was visiting the Satpura National Park in Madhya Pradesh, filming for a documentary.
2. The narrator and the crew headed in the direction of the deer's call because they thought that a predator, most likely a tiger, bear, or leopard, was in the vicinity.
3. The situation was more fearful than exciting for the crew because they weren't in a jeep as they drew nearer to the alarm calls. They were on foot, and the idea of sharing the ground with a tiger, leopard, or bear was very frightening.
4. The narrator saw a mugger crocodile basking in the sunshine on the banks of a pond with its mouth wide open, a wild gaur with a one-day-old calf, a giant squirrel playing in the branches of a tree, magnificent birds, a jungle cat in the bushes, and a sloth bear casually nibbling on grass and crossing the path before them, while another one wandered further into the wilderness.
5. The narrator still dreams that he or she is in Satpura, walking by the light of dimly lit lanterns, his or her head turned skywards as stars begin to appear everywhere above him or her.
