NOTES

Class - VII

Subject - English

Topic - When Hitler stole pink rabbit

- A. 1. Mama said this to Anna.
2. The family was trying to hide the fact that Anna and Max's father had left Germany.
3. The Nazis would bother them if they found out that Anna and Max's father had left Germany.

B.

1. Anna and Max's father was a writer and he had openly criticized Hitler and his policies during the time he was coming to power. His friends warned him that he would be caught and tortured, so he escaped in the nick of time to France and then to England.
2. Yes, the family was lucky to have escaped Hitler's clutches before he assumed power as he would have probably tortured and killed them if they had been captured by his soldiers.
3. Anna felt that they would not be tolerated by the Nazis because they were Jews as Hitler hated Jews and would not want them to live in Germany if he came into power.
4. Their mother asked Anna and Max to keep their father's escape a secret because she felt that the Nazis would trouble them if they found out about it.
5. Their mother spoke very calmly and simply even when their life was in grave danger because she did not want to scare and panic the children. However, she did explain the graveness of the situation to them.
6. No, Anna and Max did not feel the danger to their lives when their father was escaping because they were too young to understand the gravity of the situation and their mother appeared cheerful and optimistic. They were also very excited about the move as they would get to experience a whole new life.
