Topic - Feelings(poem)

Q1.RTS-

A.

1. They refer to bullies who say unkind things to other kids who are smaller in size than them.
2. The anger and unhappiness that is deep-seated within the bullies needs fixing.
3. The bullies do not know how to fix their deep-seated anger.
4. They pick on children who are smaller in size when they don't know how to fix their deep-seated anger.

Q2. Answer the following questions briefly-

- 1 The children say unkind and untrue things in the poem.
2. The things said by the children hurt the speaker because they were not true.
3. The mother tells the child that happiness grows faster than anger so it is better to remain happy than angry in life.
4. If one lets their anger stay with them, it leads to several health problems, which could include headache and sleeplessness. Life is too short to be spent in anger.
5. The mother tells her child to speak up for oneself and express one's feelings, but in a nice manner without getting angry and upset. She says that it is not easy to be nice to people who hurt us, but anger does not solve any problems it rather increases them.
