B. Reference to context:

B1 a) The act refers to Jimmy Valentine stuffing Annabel's rose bud into his vest pocket, throwing off his coat and pulling up his shirt sleeves

b) Ralph D. Spencer was Jimmy's new identity. He passed away when Jimmy began breaking into the vault and settled back into his old identity to save Agatha's life

c) Jimmy had to take his pace to save little Agatha's life.

2. a) Jimmy Valentine said these words to detective Ben Price.

b) 'it' refers to the revelation of his true identity as Jimmy Valentine a 'wanted burglar

c) The mood of the speaker was dull and dismal as he had just revealed his true identity in front of Annabel and her family. In doing so, he had lost his reformed life and the prospect of marrying Annabel.

C. Answer these questions briefly:

1. Jimmy Valentine was sent to prison because he was a safe burglar. After coming out, he went to a cafe owned by his old friend Mike Dolan.

2. Ben Price was a famed police detective. Price's collar button was found in Jimmy's room because he had torn it from Price's shirt during struggle to arrest Jimmy.

3. Jimmy wrote a letter to his old friend Billy and informed him of his reformed ways. He offered Billy his case of burglar tools and arranged a meeting Sullivan's place in Little Rock the next Wednesday.

4. Jimmy operated a prosperous shoe store in Elmore. He started this business so that he could pursue Annabel Adams who he spotted on the street.

5. The two little girls were fascinated by the vaults working and the elder one shut her younger sister Agatha inside. The vault's combinations had not been set yet, reducing it impossible to open. So Agatha's mother began screamed hysterically.

6. Jimmy opened his suitcase of burglar tools and in ten minutes of work, opened the vault and rescued the girls.
